Straight To the Heart Biblical Communication Tactics

2 Corinthians 4:2

- ✓ But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor corrupting the Word of God, but by the revelation of the truth commanding ourselves to every conscience of men before God.

When people try to communicate the good news of Messiah, content seems to readily find a place well ahead of understanding how to communicate that Truth. The Bible, however, has much to say on the subject of skilled communication when communicating to others.

For example:

- ✓ Colossians 4:5 - 6 Walk in wisdom toward the ones outside, redeeming the time. Let your word be always with grace, having been seasoned with salt, to know how you ought to answer each one.
- ✓ Proverbs 25:11 A word rightly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.
- ✓ James 1:19 So that, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

Often, communicating the Bible is based on how people feel about things or who has the best intellectual arguments. This can lead to frustration, hurt feelings, loss of opportunity, disappointment, misunderstandings and a derailed attempt at trying to fulfill the command to make disciples, beginning with presenting the right content. Content is important, but delivery - speaking to the hearing of your listeners - is key.

HeartReacher's "Straight To the Heart" assumes an understanding of the content of the Bible and the gospel message and focuses instead on the often underestimated effects of a skilled delivery of the good news.

What is often missing is the method of communicating truth that was at the forefront in the First Century congregations.

Paul states clearly that the key ingredient in communicating truth is not logical arguments or a passionate delivery, but directing of the truth to a conscience.
